911. Call taker 31.

(inaudible). There's a couple of kids up here on 9, 9, 91, 9112 Marsh on the corner. That's my address. But they got guns. And there's four or five little teenager girls, like 18, 17. And if the police pull up, the guy with the white t-shirt on and jeans, he got this gun in his pocket. (inaudible).

Okay. And you say they're at 9112 Marsh?

Yeah. 9112 Marsh. (inaudible). They right there on the corner. (inaudible) When they come down on James A Reed and 91st Terrace, you're gonna get 'em on the corner. He got dreads and a white t-shirt on. The other one got...

Is he a Black male or a white male?

Yah. No, Black male. Both of them Black males.

Okay. And both of them have guns?

Yah. Yah. Just pull up on them right now because they're out here playing with them.

And what's the other one. Second male. You say he's got a gun as well?

Yah. He's got on a black t-shirt. But they both together. And they got like four teenage girls. They gonna mess around and somebody's gonna get hurt with these guns. They're up here just pulling them out. Hugging these girls, playing with them. They need to get these guns from them before somebody gets hurt, and I mean that.

Okay. Absolutely. And then do you want to leave your name or phone number at all today?

This is my number here that I just called you on.

Alrighty. We'll go ahead and put a call out and get somebody out there and check it out.

Alright.

Yah.

Further affiant saith not.
